University for the Common Good

Caledonian Court Summer 2026

Caledonian Court is the University residence for students during term time. Its city centre location in the heart of Glasgow makes it an extremely popular base for summer visitors, from Mid-June to end of August.

Many famous attractions and destinations are within easy reach, and only a short walk from train stations at Central and Queen Street, with Buchanan Bus Station on the doorstep.

Glasgow International Airport is approximately twenty minutes away by car, taxi or airport bus service.

Since its launch in 1993, Glasgow Caledonian University has become one of the most popular Scottish universities with a reputation as an innovative provider of quality vocational and professional higher education. The modern accommodation at Caledonian Court meets the needs of students and visitors alike.

General Information 2026

Accommodation

Caledonian Court is a modern purpose built complex of 100 flats, in a high amenity area in the city centre. Each flat is self-contained with 5, 6, 7 or 8 single rooms with bedding and towels and a fully equipped shared kitchen. There is 24 hour access for collection of keys, at the Accommodation Office reception during office hours or at the Security Office when reception is closed. There is a app-operated launderette in the centre of the complex, for residents' use. Parking is limited.

Catering

The accommodation is self catering. If you are renting a room you are invited to use the kitchen facilities in the flat, but we request that you keep this area clean and tidy for other residents who may be sharing the flat with you. City centre shopping is excellent for those who wish to prepare their own meals, and there is a great choice of restaurants and entertainment facilities within five minutes walk of Caledonian Court.

Meals are also available from a number of outlets on campus, during normal opening hours or by arrangement in advance for group booking. All residents and guests are welcome. Groups and conferences may have meals arranged in advance. We are happy to discuss provision of meals and other arrangements for groups.

Conference Facilities

The University has a range of lecture theatres and seminar rooms, fully equipped with audio-visual facilities. Hospitality arrangements can be tailored to suit the needs of individual groups. The Conference and Events Team can prepare a seamless package, providing a professional service.

Extras

We are happy to discuss individual requirements with tour operators and conference organisers to tailor a suitable package for groups.
